KernTax makes no representation as to what results, if any, will come from its intervention on behalf of ratepayers and makes no claim of any benefit which customers may or may not receive. Tier 1 and 2 customers (those that use below average amounts of electricity) are likely to see an increase in rates if they are currently below market value. Neither KernTax nor an authorizing ratepayer undertakes any legal obligation to one another. No consideration of any kind has been given by either KernTax or customer to each other, and no rights are intended to be given by either party to either party. Neither party has any right to claim damages against the other party.
