BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Application of Pacific Gas and Electric Company for Authority, Among Other Things, to Increase Rates and Charges for Electric and Gas Service Effective on January 1, 2020. (U39M.)

Application 18-12-009

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGES'
RULING TO ADMIT ADDITIONAL EXHIBITS INTO EVIDENCE

1. Background

On November 25, 2019, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) filed a motion (Motion) to admit into evidence late-submitted errata to Exhibits 93, 95, and 301.

After hearings, PG&E discovered an error in the methodology it used in extrapolating data on disconnections.¹ PG&E provided the disconnection data pursuant to California Public Utilities Code Section 718. After correcting the error, PG&E identified seven additional disconnections in 2018, from 272,476 to 272,483.²

² PG&E's Motion at 2.

As a result of the error, some of the data and testimony PG&E provided in Exhibits 93, 95, and 301 are inaccurate.³ Exhibit 93 is PG&E's Rebuttal testimony, sponsored by Jess Brown, regarding Customer Care, Volume 1. PG&E provides an errata to Exhibit 93 in Attachment B of its Motion. Exhibit 95 is a set of workpapers supporting select chapters of Exhibit 93. PG&E provides an errata to Exhibit 95 in Attachment C of its Motion. Exhibit 301 is PG&E's Supplemental Data Response to TURN's Data Request #11, Question 1. PG&E provides an errata to Exhibit 301 in Attachment A of its Motion.

2. Discussion

According to Rule 11.1(e),⁴ responses to motions must be filed and served within 15 days of the date the motion was served. The 15-day response period has passed. No parties responded to PG&E's Motion.

After careful review of the errata PG&E provided, we find it reasonable to grant PG&E's Motion to admit Attachments A, B, and C as errata to Exhibits 301, 93, and 95, respectively.

IT IS RULED that:

1. Attachment A of PG&E's Motion shall be identified and admitted into evidence as Exhibit 301A.
2. Attachment B of PG&E's Motion shall be identified and admitted into evidence as Exhibit 93B.

³ Exhibits 93 and 95 were received into evidence on October 3, 2019. Exhibit 301 was received into evidence on October 18, 2019.

⁴ The rules mentioned in this Ruling pertain to the rules described in the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

3. Attachment C of PG&E's Motion shall be identified and admitted into evidence as Exhibit 95A.

Dated December 30, 2019, at San Francisco, California.
